OBJECTIVES

This class will introduce you to the fields of Chican@ and Latin@ Studies. Although a broad range of Chicano/a Latina/o Studies topics will be covered, there will be a focus on certain aspects of history, culture, politics, race, gender and sexuality. Dialectical reasoning will be used to develop critical thinking skills and to teach you to weave sociological analysis into your history and culture using Chicano/Latino Studies as a point of departure. We will examine the similarities and differences among and between Chicano/a and Latino/a Studies while learning the basic tenets of both areas through the writings of Chicano/Latino writers, not all of who are college professors. You will be exposed to many aspects of the lives of Latinos and Chicanos in the United States including terms of identification and their significance in those lives. We will examine myths and stereotypes and look not only at how they are created, but also how we, both as individuals and in groups, come to believe in them.

You are expected to attend every class and I will take attendance. An absence is an absence and there is no difference between excused and unexcused. Your second absence will result in a 10% reduction (50 points) of your final grade and YOU CANNOT PASS THE CLASS WITH THREE ABSENCES.

Class Participation You are expected to complete the assigned readings prior to the day they are scheduled for class and to come to class prepared to discuss questions or make statements of educated opinion about the articles. You should take notes. IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU READ THE ASSIGNED READINGS BEFORE THE DATES THEY ARE TO BE DISCUSSED AND TAKE NOTES ON THOSE READINGS. You should review your notes before each class so you can participate in meaningful discussions. You will be expected to ask relevant questions about the readings and other topics you do not understand and discuss the topics you know about and understand from the readings. You should always be thinking about your biographical relationship to the class discussion topics. How are these readings related to you and your life? What dont you understand? What do you understand very well? Etc. You must be in class to participate. ANY absence takes away from your participation grade. This includes coming in late and leaving early.

Discussion Starters

Discussion should include, the primary claim(s) of the section. Write a hypothesis for each section or article, sum it up in a sentence or short paragraph and make an outline of the relevant articles. Write at least 3 discussion questions. What questions are raised by the author? How is this article related to others in class? Include your perception of the quality of the evidence to support the authors claim. We are using a textbook that has discussion questions so this should be very easy. If you want an AA@ be sure to have good organization and clarity, something you can easily understand. Keep in mind that these are discussions of the main ideas and will not include everything from the chapter. Be your family history and how that has affected you. There are some examples of ethnicity affecting lives in our readings. We will discuss this assignment on September 22nd and you will be given specifics on what is expected. Then you will rewrite the assignment using my feedback and what we learn in class to expand beyond your race/ethnicity and to write more about your culture in general. In the end this is worth 20% of your final grade and should be relatively easy. You may have to ask parents, aunts, uncles, grandparents, cousins, etc. for information but most of you will not need to do library work or extra research for this. Be careful with this assignment. Be sure you take the time to sit down, think about what you want to write and review the final product for organization and to make sure you have what you need for the grade you hope to achieve.

Book Review

This assignment will require you to read a book outside of class. You can choose any novel, biography or collection of short stories. If you are not sure see me and I can help you find an appropriate book. Look for Latino American authors or stories about Latino life in the U.S. Once you have read the book you must write a 3 page review which will include: 1) about one half page summary, what was the book about? What were the main themes or ideas. Include almost no description here. Write about and explain one or two main themes of the book. 2) two pages of analysis; in this section write about how the book relates to class discussions or the class readings. What was in the book that we also covered in class. Be sure to include definitions here. Do not assume anything is too obvious. Tell me, in detail, how the concepts from the book relate to the concepts from class. You will probably have to include some description here in order to explain how your book relates to issues from class. If you have questions about what is and what is not analysis, please ask. 3) The final part of this write-up will be about one half page and will include your opinion of the book, did you like it? Was it believable? Did it bring out any particular feelings or emotions? And of what use was (is) it in this type of class? To make it easier for me to follow the structure of your paper be sure to use section headings.

2) To avoid misunderstandings, all students are expected to uphold the academic integrity and conform to the policies and practices set forth in the section on Academic Integrity in the UNO Student Handbook. Students are also expected to avoid the appearance of impropriety by talking or having open books or notes during class activities when it would be inappropriate to do so. Embarrassing or ridiculing another member of the class or disrupting normal class functioning by creating a hostile environment will result in dismissal from class and a grade of for the course.

This syllabus may be changed at the discretion of the instructor. You will be given sufficient notice of any syllabus or schedule changes.
