

UNO Sexual Violence and Prevention Awareness Training

1. Am I required to complete this training?

Yes, it is expected that all individuals should complete this training annually. Reminders will be sent through University of Nebraska System Learning (Bridge) if you have not completed it.

2. I have concerns about taking this training. Who do I talk to?

If you have concerns about taking this training, UNO individuals should email Scott Seeba at sseeba@unomaha.edu. Scott would be happy to discuss and address concerns that individuals might have.

3. I am getting emails from University of Nebraska System Learning (Bridge) about training. They Emails from University of Nebraska System Learning (Bridge) populate outside of the University from this server are the official communications related to sexual violence prevention and awareness training. Bridge is a secure platform and will require you to use your NU credentials to log in.

4. I am a parttime or temporary employee at the University. Do I still need to take it?

Yes, it is expected that you will complete the training. We strive to make campus as safe and welcoming as possible, and we can only do that when we are all informed.

5. What course am I supposed to take?

Your status at this institution. It will be as follows:

Undergraduate students: 100 minutes
Graduate students: 150 minutes
Faculty and staff: 150 minutes

8. Title IX staff do not have access to TrueYou credentials and cannot assist with that information. Please contact UNO IT Services for any questions regarding your TrueYou account or logging in.

9. Is there a preferred online browser that I should use to complete the training? Ultimately you may choose whatever browser you are comfortable with, but we have found that learners who used Chrome or Firefox have experienced less technical issues compared to those using other browsers.

10. I am enrolled (or employed) at two different University of Nebraska campuses. Do I have to do the training twice?

Yes, you will need to complete the training at each campus. Please contact your training representative (bottom of the page) for more information.

11. I was an undergraduate at the University, but now I have started graduate courses and I am getting emails to complete the training. Do I have to do it again?

No, you only need to complete the training once. You will receive an email when you are eligible to complete the training.

12. How do I verify that I completed the training?

There are two ways to ensure that you complete the training:

- Your course completion email.
- A certificate of completion will be generated once your course is complete.

13. How do I view my certificate?

To view your certificate, click on the Bridge link in the upper right corner, switch from Grid to List View. Find your completed trainings. There should be a View Certificate link where you can access and print out your certificate. (Sample below shows the link).

14. Do I need to send you my certificate of completion?

No, you do not need to send this to us. We are able to ensure completion in Bridge, and do not need to see this certificate. We encourage users to print it or screenshot/save it for their own records.

To view if your training is current, log into Bridge and see if your respective course populates under
